

Indiana AmeriCorps 2015-2016	ORGANIZATION	CONTACT	MEMBER POSITIONS	SERVICE SITES	PROGRAM ADDRESS	PROGRAM WEBSITE
Indiana Response and Preparedness Corps (RAP Corps) have 35 AmeriCorps members who will provide disaster services and capacity building services to improve disaster cycle services - disaster preparedness, response, and recovery - in 80 Indiana counties. RAP Corps will be responsible for: (1) recruiting and placing 400 new disaster volunteers in specific roles; (2) matching existing disaster volunteers' skills with optimal volunteer roles; (3) assisting with volunteer disaster preparedness training of 500 adults and 500 youth; (4) facilitating 700 encounters with Hoosiers involved in disasters; and (5) building/strengthening relationships with more than 200 community partners to increase resources to meet the needs of individuals and families impacted by disaster.	American Red Cross of Indiana	Brooke Riester 317-684-4381 brooke.riester@redcross.org	35 FT	ARC of Columbus; Muncie; Northeast IN; Northwest IN; Southwestern IN; Monroe County; St Joseph County; Tippecanoe County; Wabash Valley	441 East 10th Street Indianapolis, IN 46202	www.redcross.org/indy
Indy After-School Corps have 35 AmeriCorps members who will implement the Boys & Girls Clubs of America Project Learn, an educational enhancement program, including five major components: homework help and tutoring, high-yield learning and leisure activities, parent and adult involvement, collaboration with schools, and incentives, in 11 Boys & Girls Clubs of Indianapolis sites and additional youth serving organizations in the community. AmeriCorps members will be responsible for increased interest in school and increased academic performance. In addition, the AmeriCorps members will leverage an additional 100 volunteers who will be engaged in mentoring, tutoring, and implementing enrichment activities with youth. This program will focus on the CNCS focus area of Education.	Boys & Girls Clubs of Indianapolis	Rebecca James 317-452-8734 rjames@bgcindy.org Chris Wake 317-274-2858 cwake@bgcindy.org	60 HT, 25 RT, 30 QT, 50 MT, 20 MT w/o living allow	Boys & Girls Clubs of Indianapolis, Boys & Girls Clubs of Morgan County, Hawthorne Community Center, Mary Rigg Neighborhood Center, East Tenth United Methodist Children and Youth Center	3530 S. Keystone Avenue, Suite 200, Indianapolis 46227	http://www.bgcindy.org/programs/americorps
Project ACES have 165 AmeriCorps members who work with Indiana children through education, healthy lifestyles, and character & leadership development in Boys & Girls Clubs facilities across Indiana. At the end of the 1st program year, the AmeriCorps members will be responsible for (1) serving 30,000 children in education programs with 85% completing a 30 session program and 75% of those increasing their reading/math fluency scores by at least 15%; (2) provide over 225,000 nutritious snacks/meals, engage 35,000 in after school physical activity, and 6,000 in nutrition education programs; and (3) complete 800 community service projects, recruit 2,600 volunteers with over 26,000 hours of volunteer service. In addition, the AmeriCorps members will leverage an additional 2,600 volunteers that will engage in youth development programming such as homework help, coaching, and leading various groups.	Boys & Girls Clubs of Wayne County	Lana Taylor, 317-356-2308, ltaylor@indianabgc.org and Jessica McKinley jmckinley@indianabgc.org	8 FT, 8 HT, 7 RHT, 12 MT	Statewide BGCs	1717 S L Street, Richmond, IN 47374

Early Learning Indiana have 15 AmeriCorps members who 1) build the capacity of pre-Kindergarten (pre-K) programs to engage parents in their child's education and development, 2) strengthen program-parent relationships, and 3) help parents support their child's development, particularly with respect to literacy. The AmeriCorps members are assigned to high-quality, pre-K programs participating in the state of Indiana's inaugural pre-K pilot program. AmeriCorps members will be hosted by participating high quality pre-K programs and be oriented, trained and coached by specialists in early childhood and family engagement located within child care resource and referral agencies in the three communities. At the end of the first program year, the AmeriCorps members will be responsible for ensuring one overarching outcome: parents of low-income children engaged in the state's pre-K pilot program have positively impacted their child's readiness for Kindergarten.	Early Learning Indiana	Kailah Lee kailahl@earlylearningindiana.org	16 FT	Early education childcare centers in Marion, Allen, and Vanderburgh Counties	615 N. Alabama St., Ste. 300, Indianapolis, IN 46204	http://www.earlylearningindiana.org/
Immigrant and Refugee Service Corps (IRSC) have 16 AmeriCorps members who will provide immigrants and refugees better access to health and wellness in Central Indiana. At the end of the first program year, the AmeriCorps members will be responsible for providing 400 immigrants and refugees quality information and training. In addition, the AmeriCorps members will leverage 100 volunteers who will be engaged in relevant host-site capacity building activities, furthering the IRSC focus area objectives for wellness of immigrants and refugees.	Episcopal Diocese of Indianapolis (fiscal agent for) Center for Interfaith Cooperation	Ben Leslie 708-805-1688 ben@centerforinterfaithcooperation.org	15FT	central Indiana: Immigrant Welcome Center, Exodus Refugee Immigration, National Alliance on Mental Illness Indiana, La Plaza, Butler University's Center for Citizenship and Community, Big Car, The Albert & Sara Reuben Elder and Community Resource Center, Peace Learning Center, and Christian Theological Seminary's Family Counseling Center.	1100 West 42nd Street, Se. 125, Indianapolis, IN 46208	http://www.centerforinterfaithcooperation.org/immigrant-and-refugee-service-corps
Scholars Excel AmeriCorps Program have 15 AmeriCorps members who will serve as full-time Teaching Fellows, providing small-group, guided, and intervention-based instruction to 360 children in elementary schools serving high-poverty neighborhoods in Indianapolis. At the end of the first program year, the AmeriCorps members will be responsible for helping children increase their math and reading proficiency, gain confidence and character; as well as engaging families and the community in our children's education. In addition, the AmeriCorps members will leverage an additional 20-30 volunteers who will be engaged in serving as guest speakers, facilitating parent workshops, and supporting meaningful field trips and experiential learning opportunities for children. Scholars Excel AmeriCorps Program will focus on the CNCS focus area of education and only will be an education award only program.	Entrepreneurial Ventures in Education	Carrie Barnes (interim) http://www.phalenacademies.org cbarnes@phalenacademies.org	15 FT	Phalen Leadership Academies, Indianapolis	2323 N. Illinois St., Indianapolis, IN 46208	http://www.phalenacademies.org/

HabiCorps have 12 AmeriCorps members who will serve as Volunteer Coordinators, Family Services Liaisons, Construction Assistants and Capacity Builders in Habitat for Humanity affiliates across Indiana. At the end of the first program year, the AmeriCorps members will be responsible for serving 200 individuals with housing placement services and transitioning 150 individuals into Habitat homes. In addition, the AmeriCorps members will leverage an additional 5,000 volunteers who will be engaged in building homes, helping neighborhoods and affiliate enhancement. This program will focus on the CNCS focus area of Economic Opportunity.	Habitat for Humanity of Indiana	Beth Resler 317-454-8090 beth@habitatindiana.org	12FT	Habitat for Humanity affiliates: Indianapolis, Lafayette, Martinsville, Muncie, Gary, Westfield, Valparaiso, Terre Haute	101 W. Ohio Street, Suite 2000, Indianapolis, IN 46204	http://www.habitatindiana.org/ameriCorps
Scholar Corps members are placed at select colleges and universities across Indiana and serve as an on-campus resource to freshman and sophomore 21st Century Scholar students enrolled at that institution. The program aims to increase 21st Century Scholar retention and success by providing on-campus programming, direct support and connecting students to various on-campus resources, information and services needed to be successful in college. Each ScholarCorps AmeriCorps member will be charged with providing Scholars with resources in alignment with four programmatic goal areas, including: 1.) Academic Performance and Persistence, 2.) Student Engagement and	Indiana Commission for Higher Education	Jarod Wilson 317-232-1022 jwilson@che.in.gov	17 FT	Ball State University, Indiana State University, Indiana University – Bloomington, Indiana University – East, Indiana University – Kokomo, Indiana University – Northwest, Indiana University – South Bend, Indiana University – Southeast, IPFW, IUPUI, Ivy Tech Community College – Central (Indianapolis), Ivy Tech Community	101 West Ohio Street, Suite 550 Indianapolis, IN 46204	http://www.in.gov/che/3156.htm
Sycamore Service Corps (SSC) have 51 part time members leverage volunteers for an additional 255 hours to serve human service agencies within a five county area of West Central Indiana. At the completion of the grant SSC will increase academic performance by 15% and increase understanding of health promotion by 85% of the clients served. This project will focus on the CNCS focus area of educational homework help and healthy futures.	Indiana State University	Jennifer Christian 812-237-7900 jennifer.christian@indstate.edu	11RHT, 20QT, 20MT	West Central Indiana: Vigo County Head Start; 14th & Chestnut Comm Center; Arts Illiana; Chances and Services for Youth; Court Appointed Special Advocates; Hamilton Center; Happiness Bag; McMillian Adult Day Service; Mental Health America Vigo County; Minority Health Coalition of Vigo Co;	200 North 7th Street, Terre Haute, IN 47809	http://www.indstate.edu/publicservice/ameriCorps/
Healthy Schools Corps have eleven AmeriCorps members implement Coordinated School Health programs. AmeriCorps members recruit and manage volunteers on local school corporation wellness teams; complete school-based community needs assessments; and create Coordinated School Health plans. Host site school corporations will have implemented three or more effective volunteer management practices for the wellness teams and report that they are monitoring progress towards the goals identified in the assessment. In addition, the AmeriCorps members will leverage an additional eighty volunteers who will be engaged in completing the school-based community needs assessment and creating the Coordinated School Health plan.	Indiana University School of Public Health - Bloomington	Linda Henderson (interim) 812-675-2075 lihender@indiana.edu Erin Cooperman (main) cooperme@indiana.edu	11 FT	School Corporations: Monroe, Morgan, Owen, Greene, Lawrence, Orange, Brown, Jackson, Washington, Daviess, and Martin	1033 E. 3rd Street, Bloomington, IN 47405	www.publichealth.indiana.edu/community/ameriCorps

Near Eastside Education Corps have 23 AmeriCorps members who will provide education interventions among Pre-K and elementary school students and their families in the Near Eastside community in Indianapolis. AmeriCorps members will be responsible for improving academic performance in math and literacy among elementary school students, increasing interest in and engagement with science activities among elementary school students, improving kindergarten readiness among Pre-K children, and building parent confidence and capacity to support their children's academic performance. In addition, the AmeriCorps members will leverage an additional 50 volunteers who will be engaged in collecting and distributing educational resources to families, connecting families to high-quality preschool options, delivering parent education workshops, delivering step programming to students, and tutoring and mentoring students in math and literacy.	John H Boner Community Center	CoraLyn Turentine 317-396-8210 cturentine@jhbcc.org	23 FT	TBD	2236 E. 10th St. Indianapolis, IN 46201	www.jhbcc.org
Poverty Busters has 23 AmeriCorps members serving economically disadvantaged individuals by teaching or assisting Financial Management Classes through Indiana Circles® or Bridges Out of Poverty Initiatives. Additionally, 8 AC members serve with Scott County schools assisting students to achieve academic success in grades K-12. 205 economically disadvantaged individuals will receive financial literacy education. 140 of economically disadvantaged individuals will improve their financial literacy knowledge. 230 students will be assisted through after-school programs and in-school educational interventions with 140 improving in reading or math. 75 new Allies will be recruited and trained, then matched with Getting Ahead graduates to work on goals toward getting out of poverty. 31 AmeriCorps members will leverage an additional 400 volunteers to assist with other volunteer needs of the programs.	Scott County School District 2	Michelle Shelton 812-752-6365 michelle.shelton@scottcountypartnership.org	8 FT, 4HT, 9RT, , 4MT & 9 MT w/o LA	Austin Elem. School; circles-Life Long Learning Center; Marion County Julian Center; Scottsburg Middle and Senior High school; Scott County Clearinghouse; Scott County YMCA; South Central Community Action; St. Joseph County Bridges out of poverty; TEAM Work for Quality Living-Muncie	375 E McClain Ave, Scottsburg, IN 47170	http://scpartnership.org/ameriCorps/

Teach For America -- Indianapolis (TFA -- Indy) commits 95 AmeriCorps (AC) members who will teach for two years in low-income district, charter, and turnaround schools. At the end of the 2nd program year, TFA -- Indy corps members (CMs) will be responsible for significantly improving the literacy and/or math educational outcomes for over 2,400 students in Indianapolis. These experiences will catalyze CMs' lifelong commitment to expanding educational equity. In addition, AC members will leverage an additional 100 volunteers engaged in supporting Indianapolis' students in our classrooms.	Teach for America-Indianapolis	Julie Ardelean (Interim Director in June) julie.ardelean@teachforamerica.org	95 FT	Andrew Academy, Andrew J Brown, Arlington, Avondale Meadows, Christel House DORS/Academy, Day Nursery, Fall Creek, Fall Creek Academy, George Washington, Head Start Service Center, Herron, ILCPA (South), ILCS East, ILCS South, IMSA - North, IMSA - South, IMSA - West, Indy Met, IPS - Arsenal Tech, IPS - Broad Ripple, IPS - George Washington, IPS - Harshman, IPS - Northwest HS, IPS - School 103, IPS - School 19, IPS - School 39, IPS - School 48, IPS - School 51, IPS - School 58, IPS - School 61, IPS ECE - School 14, IPS - School 67, Key Learning	1314 N Meridian Street, Ste. 200, Indianapolis, IN 46202	www.teachforamerica.org
Bartholomew County Volunteer AmeriCorps have 30 part time AmeriCorps members who building capacity. The capacity building work is designed to assist agency sites and the UWBC to meet critical community needs addressing health, education and financial literacy. AmeriCorps members will be responsible for helping agencies meet volunteer recruitment, training, and engagement goals as well as providing direct services to address agency specific goals around health, education and financial literacy. Bartholomew County Volunteer AmeriCorps is unique in that our host sites provide a variety of services to our community. For example - i-Grad will sponsor a volunteer resource manager and direct service members to provide tutoring for students in grades 8 through 12. Another example of the diverse services of our host sites is Developmental Services Inc (DSI) which supports multiple counties, serving individuals with mental, physical and emotional challenges to live more independently. In addition, the AmeriCorps members will leverage a minimum of 1500 volunteers that will be engaged to assist clients in overcoming health, education and financial literacy issues.	United Way of Bartholomew County	Alyssa Marti 812-376-3001 amarti@uwbarthco.org	20 HT	United Way of Bartholomew County, United Way 211, United Way Volunteer Action Center, The Arc, Mill Race, Center, Love Chapel, Just Friends, IUPUC, Developmental, Services Inc, Eastside Community Center, Foundation for Youth, Heritage Fund, Turning Point, Advocates for Children, kidscommons, Elizabethtown Library, Parks and Recreation.	1531 13th St, Columbus, IN 47201	http://www.uwbarthco.org/ameri-corps
READ UP Corps have 13 full time members leverage the power of community service to improve reading levels and strengthen educational systems in local communities. Over three years, the ReadUP Corps will provide literacy interventions to approximately 1,060 students resulting in 75% of them being verified as on-track to becoming proficient readers by third grade.	United Way of Central Indiana	Susan Reinhardt 317-921-1352 susan.reinhardt@uwci.org	13FT	James Russell Lowell School, IPS #51, Brookside School, IPS #54, Ralph Waldo Emerson School IPS #58, Wendell Phillips School, IPS #63, Anna Brochhausen School, IPS #88	3901 N. Meridian St., P.O. Box 88409, Indianapolis, IN 46208-0409	http://www.uwci.org/readup-corps

Porter County Partnership will place 47 AmeriCorps members to provide services in a 5-county area in Northwest Indiana for at-risk students in need of tutoring from Kindergarten through high school; high school students needing assistance with career choices; local residents experiencing disasters; and families and individuals who need help with financial literacy. The members will assist nonprofits in capacity building through creation of electronic media and volunteer management activities. The members will leverage an additional 500 volunteers to assist in capacity-building activities. Over 250 students will have improved in at least one core subject area and over 50 individuals will have improved their financial literacy knowledge. AmeriCorps members will be trained in disaster response to ensure proper disaster service responses in times of need.	United Way of Porter County	Christine Rumbaugh 219-464-3583 christine@unitedwaypc.org	10FT, 25 HT, 12MT	Valparaiso Community Schools, Portage Township Schools, Michigan City High School, Lake Ridge High School, Portage High School, Highland High School, Merrillville High School, Porter County Aging and Community Services, Lake County Sheriff's Office, Positive Approach to Teen Health (PATH), Dayspring/Open Arms Women's Shelter, Taltree Arboretum and Gardens, Porter County Museum of History, Food Bank of Northwest Indiana, United Way of	951 Eastport Centre Drive, Valparaiso, IN 46383	www.unitedwaypc.org/ameri-corps
The Robinson Community Learning Center (RCLC) has 29 AmeriCorps members who coordinate a range of educational programs, provide direct service, recruit/supervise volunteers, expand outreach, develop curricula, and assist with program evaluation, at the RCLC, the Notre Dame Center for Arts and Culture (NDCAC), the YMCA Urban youth Services, and the OC Carmichael Boys and Girls Club. At the end of the 1st program year the AmeriCorps members will be responsible for improving educational outcomes for 350 local youth. In addition, the AmeriCorps members will leverage an additional 550 volunteers that will engage in tutoring, implementing afterschool enrichment programs, and teaching conflict resolution/violence prevention.	University of Notre Dame	Jennifer Knapp Buerdert, 574-631-2686, knappbeudert.1@nd.edu	9 FT, 8 HT, 6 QT, 6 MT	Robinson Community Learning Center, Boys & Girls Club of St. Joseph County, and YMCA of Michiana Urban Youth Services	921 North Eddy Street, South Bend IN 46617	http://rclc.nd.edu/about-rclc/ameri-corps/